

Puzzle 15: Bag of Tricks

So, you've found my “bag of tricks” among your puzzle materials? Well, then you've probably figured out that the nine, colored, plastic blocks inside the bag are not so much “tricks” as they are “tricky.” Tricky, as in, “what am I supposed to do with these things?”

Maybe the accompanying booklet of grids and shapes and letters and numbers can help you out. I don't want to give too much away. You're a clever bunch; I'm sure you'll figure it (and the grid below) out.
